In Re: Complaint and Request for Relief of Tel-Save, Inc. Against BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. for Violation of Sections 201(b) and 202 of The Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Violation of T.C.A. § 65-4-115

Docket No. 98-00464

TEL-SAVE, INC.'S NOTICE
OF WITHDRAWAL OF COMPLAINT AND REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Comes now, Tel-Save, Inc. ("TSI"), through its undersigned counsel, and withdraws its Complaint and Request for Relief against BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc., stating as grounds for same the following:

1. On October 30, 1998, TSI filed a Complaint and Request for Relief against BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. for violations of §§ 201(b) and 202 of The Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and violation of T.C.A. § 65-4-115. The issue presented by TSI's complaint is whether BellSouth's practice of refusing to accept e-mailed requests from customers to lift PC freezes is unreasonable and discriminatory behavior in violation of T.C.A. § 65-4-115.
2. On November 17, 1998, TSI presented testimony in Docket Nos. 97-07620 and 97-07621 regarding the use of e-mail to lift PC freezes in the consideration of the new Tennessee Regulatory Authority Rule 1220-4-2-.56. On December 15, 1998, the Authority adopted new rules regarding implementing and lifting PC freezes which did not enumerate the use of e-mail for lifting PC freezes.
3. In the interest of administrative and judicial economy, TSI believes that there is no longer a need for proceeding with the complaint at this time.

WHEREFORE, TSI respectfully withdraws, without prejudice, its Complaint and Request for Relief currently before the Authority.

Respectfully submitted,
